John 11:41-43: So they removed the stone. Then Jesus raised His eyes, and said, "Father, I thank You that You have heard Me. "And I knew that You always hear Me; but because of the crowd standing around I said this, so that they may believe that You sent Me." And when He had said these things, He cried out with a loud voice, "Lazarus, come forth."

Billy Sunday:

"To see some people today you would think that the essential of Christianity is to have a face so long you could eat oatmeal out of the end of a gas pipe."

3

Psalms 126:5-6

*Those who sow in tears
shall reap with shouts of joy!
He who goes out weeping, bearing the seed
for sowing, shall come home
with shouts of joy,
bringing his sheaves with him.*

R.A. Torrey:
*“There is more joy in Jesus in 24 hours
 than there is in the world in 365 days.
 I have tried them both.”*

John Stott:

"No comment could be more hurtful to the Christian than the words, 'But you are no different from anybody else.' For the essential theme of the whole Bible from beginning to end is that God's historical purpose is to call out a people for himself; that this people is a 'holy' people, set apart from the world to belong to him and to obey him . . . the followers of Jesus are to be different – different from both the nominal church and the secular world, different from both the religious and the irreligious."

J.C. Ryle:

"He that would win the crown must carry the cross, and show himself light in the midst of darkness, and salt in the midst of corruption."

2 Timothy 2:12:

*If we suffer,
we shall also reign with him:
if we deny him,
he also will deny us:*

Rev. Timothy Dwight

"Never did a minster plead more fervently for his people-never a father more importunately for his children, than he did for his pupils before him. Nor were the wants of the church, nor the influence of a revival in the college upon the Redeemer's kingdom in the land-in the world, forgotten." -Chauncey Goodrich
